Improvements to Existing Features

Enhancements and optimizations to existing functionalities:

- Input fields are prefilled when converting an offer into an order

To save time in the order process, the fields order description and desired delivery date are prefilled when converting an offer into an order. In this way users do not need to re-enter the same data but still have the chance to make adaptations. In case your desired delivery date lies in the past already, the field will be left empty for you to adapt.
